WE'RE SAN LUIS OBISPO.

BUT YOU CAN CALL US SLO.

We're small-town California with big-time charm, ready to welcome you. This is the change of pace you've been looking for. We're laid back, and we let loose. We're a breath of fresh air. We're all about waking up every day to have your best day ever. It's a way of life for locals (and when you're here, you're a local).

Come experience it for yourself. Come live the SLO Life.

SLO LIFE TIP

HAVE YOUR BEST DAY. EVERY DAY.

In SLO, you can do the things that make you smile 365 days a year.

YOUR HOMEBASE AWAY FROM HOME

Located between San Francisco and Los Angeles on the historic Highway 1, the city of San Luis Obispo sets itself apart as the perfect hub for exploring the Central Coast of California. It's the perfect place to lay your head after a long day of exploration, and once you experience it, you'll fall in love. Because there's no life like the SLO Life.

GETTING HERE

DRIVE

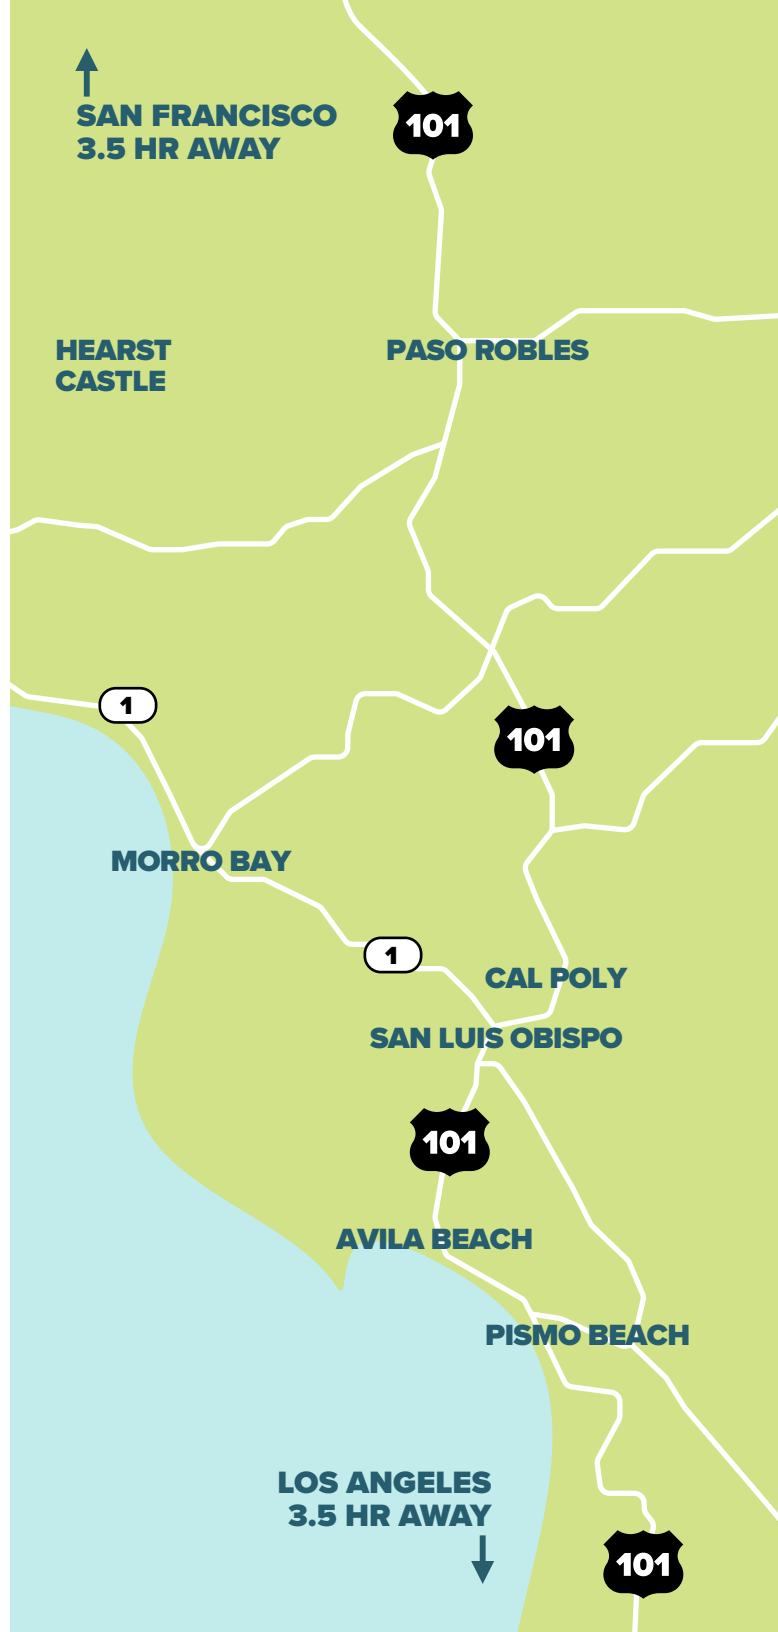

There's nothing quite like a drive along the historic Pacific Coast Highway. Take Highway 1 or the 101 North from Los Angeles or south from San Francisco. It'll land you right in downtown San Luis Obispo.

FLY

The San Luis Obispo County Regional Airport (SBP) offers a convenient, stress-free way to access San Luis Obispo and the surrounding region.

BUS AND TRAIN

Catch the Amtrak to the San Luis Obispo station or hop on a Greyhound. Both are beautiful and budget-friendly ways to sightsee and get to SLO.

OUR NEIGHBORHOODS

MOJO

The surrounding areas of Monterey and Johnson cross streets are home to many hotels, a variety of fun dining options, and the unofficial arcade district. You'll also find the main entrance to Cal Poly, easy access to Downtown SLO, and a direct entrance north to Highway 1.

RAILROAD DISTRICT

In the historic Railroad District, you can explore the family-friendly Railroad Museum, access the bustling amtrak station, and sample several local eateries. Bicycle and pedestrian paths allow for easy connectivity to downtown and the nearby neighborhoods.

LOBRO

Art meets craft with a splash of outdoor adventure in the lower Broad area of SLO. In LoBro, explore South Hills Open Space and reward yourself after by visiting local craft breweries, cideries, wineries, restaurants and more.

SLO SOUTH

Whether you like wine, craft beer, kombucha or coffee, head to SLO South, the city's unofficial beverage district. At the corner of Tank Farm and South Higuera Street, this vibrant part of town is full of historic sites, trails, restaurants and shops to explore.

FOOTHILL

This lively neighborhood sits along Highway 1 with convenient access to Cal Poly and coastal beach towns to the north. Foothill has great outdoor spots for all types of recreation, including Santa Rosa Park and the San Luis Obispo Skate Park.

LOHI

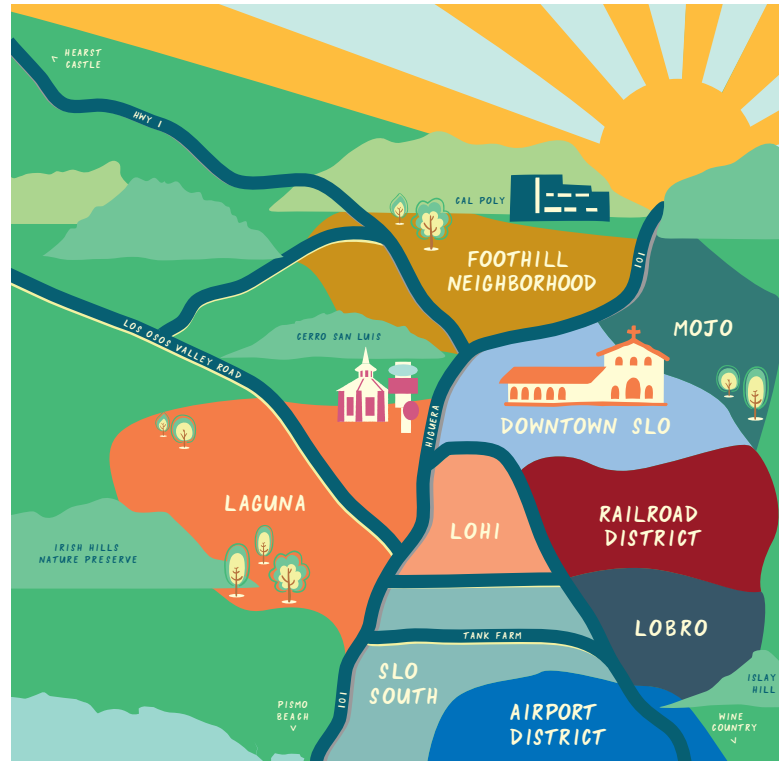

LoHi is the quintessential spot to broaden your horizons with independent shops and casual dining. There's plenty of greenery to explore here too, like the central trails of South Hills Open Space and pickleball courts of Meadow Park.

AIRPORT DISTRICT

Within minutes of downtown, the Airport District offers easy-access to travel and a blossoming business district. SLO's gateway to wine country, enjoy a scenic drive through wineries and ranches before landing south towards Arroyo Grande and Pismo Beach.

LAGUNA

At the intersection of convenience and adventure is the Laguna neighborhood. Find miles of trails, golf courses (of the regular and disc variety), an indoor archery range, a dog park, name brand stores, all the shopping essentials and of course, Laguna Lake itself.

SAN LUIS OBISPO AND THE SURROUNDING REGION STUNS 365 DAYS A YEAR.

The wine always flows, the Downtown SLO Farmers' Market always delights, and the views on every hike are sure to take your breath away.

THINGS TO DO

DOWNTOWN SLO

Downtown SLO is the epicenter of the city—where you can stay, eat, drink, shop, explore and relax.

SHOP LOCAL

In Downtown SLO, local shops thrive. From jewelers to artists to surfer swag and trendy clothes, there is a rich and unique shopping experience to be found as you stroll the charming streets.

BUBBLEGUM ALLEY

Don't forget to leave your mark on Bubblegum Alley while you're in town. The attraction is one of the strangest yet most popular in SLO, and has been named one of the world's most bizarre must-see places. What can we say? We love sticky situations.

DOWNTOWN SLO FARMERS' MARKET

We don't just enjoy local food in San Luis Obispo, we celebrate it. You'll find a handful of Farmers' Markets around town, but most notable is the Thursday night Downtown SLO Farmers' Market that takes over Higuera Street every week from 6:00 p.m. – 9:00 p.m.

MISSION SAN LUIS OBISPO DE TOLOSA

Traverse to the center of SLO to explore the Mission San Luis Obispo de Tolosa. Founded in 1772, the mission offers a museum, docent tours, a gift shop and more. Residents and visitors enjoy Friday night concerts in the Mission Plaza during the summer, and the plaza attracts thousands of people each year for dozens of community events.

SLO LIFE TIP

SLO YOUR STROLL.

Stop in at that local shop. Spend one more minute enjoying your cocktail in the sun.

OUTDOOR RECREATION

HIKING

With tens of thousands of acres of open space encircling the city, it's no wonder that hiking is a favorite pastime for SLO locals. Conquer one of the peaks for 360-degree views or hike deep into a canyon to explore creeks and waterfalls. There's a hike for everyone in SLO, no matter your age or fitness level. Explore the trail map on page 16.

CYCLING & MOUNTAIN BIKING

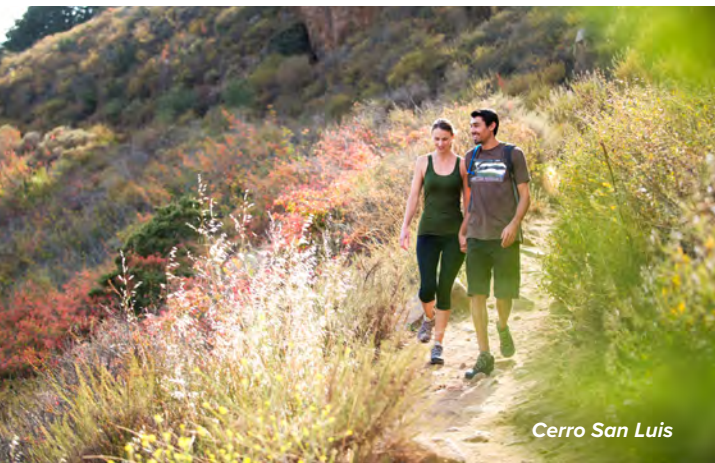

Winding back roads take cyclists through scenic rolling hills and vineyards, while tough climbs and incredible views make SLO a mountain biker's paradise.

SLO SKATE PARK

Drop in with your skates or skateboard in the California sun.

GOLFING

San Luis Obispo's golf courses offer variety for all skill levels from juniors to life-long players. Play along the coast at Morro Bay or Avila Beach or play in town at the San Luis Obispo Country Club.

HORSEBACK RIDING

With an incredible landscape just waiting to be explored, there's no better place to saddle up for a horseback riding adventure. The area's 1,000+ acres of equestrian trails feature sweeping views of SLO's rolling hills, state parks, and the bustling city.

OFFROADING

The Oceano Dunes SVRA is the only beach in California that offers off-highway vehicle (OHV) recreation. Just a short drive from Downtown SLO, it's the perfect place to get an adrenaline rush in an ATV or quad. And, for those who want to relax, the beach is right there—ready for lounging.

SLO COUNTY FARM TRAIL

Farms across SLO County welcome visitors for tours, workshops and, of course, shopping for local goods. Get outside and experience the agricultural side of the Central Coast.

GETTING AROUND

Once you're in San Luis Obispo, you barely need a car (unless you want to explore the larger region). Choosing to bike, walk or take public transportation is good for the environment, too.

- Rent a bike or borrow one from your hotel.
- Take the public bus.
- Call an Uber, Lyft or taxi to take you around.
- Of course, you can rent a car, if needed, and there's plenty of parking at hotels and in parking structures around downtown.

SLO LIFE TIP

We're a welcoming, friendly city, so we're not a city full of strangers. Just a city full of friends you haven't met yet.

LOCALS LOVE SAN LUIS OBISPO FOR ITS FARM-TO-TABLE PHILOSOPHY.

WE ARE WORKING TO PROTECT OUR REGION FOR FUTURE GENERATIONS.

Our Sustainable SLO programming works with local organizations to promote and implement sustainability initiatives.

Did you know that a portion of your room charge when you stay at a San Luis Obispo hotel goes to planting trees around town? We call it our “Keys for Trees” program, done in partnership with EcoSLO. It’s all a part of the city’s goal to be carbon neutral by 2035.
